Our Parish website has been redesigned. It now includes parish life events, ministry guidelines and schedules, guidance concerning the sacraments, and the curriculum of our entire CCD program. Please take a look at: www.st-charles-borromeo.org. And let us know what you think.

“Give us the grace...When the sacredness of life before birth is attacked, to stand up and proclaim that no one ever has the authority to destroy unborn life.”

Senior Citizens will gather at Thensted Center on Friday January 17th at 10:00 AM.

6-Steps to Easter Program

Class will begin on March 1st thru April 5th.
7th & 8th Grades will attend 4:30-6:00 PM
9th & 10th Grades will attend 6:30-8:00 PM
Please call the office of Religious Education at 662-5271 if you have any questions. Thank You!

Upcoming changes for (St. Charles Church) Lector and Eucharistic ministries. A workshop for current and interested parishioners is planned for Saturday, February 4th at St. Charles Church. For Lectors; 10-11:30 AM and EMHC 1-2:30 PM. Due to changes planned to take effect March 18th, it will be necessary to attend these workshops in order to serve. You can also view the handbooks for these ministries on the parish website under “Liturgical Ministries.” If you have questions, contact Deacon Guy at dcnguyk@gmail.com, or call the Church Office.

Please join us for an eight-part study—Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible. This study makes the complex simple. It will help uncover the story woven through Scripture so that you get the “big picture” and understand what it’s all about. The Bible is a story about the Father’s un-failing love for you—a love that you are called to share with others. We begin the study on Wednesday, February 1st (10:00-11:15 AM) in St. Charles Church. We meet for 8 consecutive Wednesdays (ending date-March 22). The cost of the accompanying workbook is $22. To ensure that all have a workbook at the first session, we ask that you call the church office (337-662-5279) no later than January 31st to register. Payment will be collected at the first session.

2017 Adult Confirmation preparation begins Sunday, February 19th from 9:00-10:15 AM followed by attendance at the 10:30 AM liturgy. We will meet each Sunday morning and conclude at the Easter Vigil on April 15. You can view program material on the parish website under Adult Formation. For information or to register, contact Deacon Guy at dcnguyk@gmail.com, or call the Church Office. Cost for materials is $20.

RESPECT LIFE

Whether it lasts for a brief moment or for a hundred years, each of our lives is a good and perfect gift. At every stage and in every circumstance, we are held in existence by God’s love. May the beginning of this new Respect Life year challenge us to remember that every person is worthy of respect and every life is worth living.

Welcome to Visitors and/or New Parishioners

*Please continue to pray for peace around the world.
Pray for all world leaders and especially for our men and women in military service.*

LIBERATION AND REFORM

While you might have to reach for an atlas to determine that Isaiah is speaking about Galilee, today's first reading (part of which was read at Christmas) is prophetic of Jesus' future ministry in that province. The light that brings salvation and rejoicing is, ultimately, Christ. Liberation is the theme: liberation from both ignorance ("darkness") and sin (the "yoke").

As Isaiah identifies a place, so Paul describes an attitude: the attitude that develops, even among good people, of equating their own will with the common good. This always brings dissension, and so it has done in Corinth. Paul will not allow this; we are all members of "Christ's party." The gospel is not to divide us.

Matthew quotes from Isaiah in today's Gospel, presenting Jesus as the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecies. The theme is "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matthew 4:17). To spread this message, Jesus begins to select disciples, four of whom we meet today: Peter, Andrew, James, and John.

ICON WORKSHOP/RETREAT

The Diocese of Lafayette Office of Worship is sponsoring a week-long residential icon painting workshop at the Jesuit Spirituality Center in Grand Coteau, LA., from January 30th-February 5th. The instructor is Dmitri Andreyev of the Prosoption School of Iconology. Participants will leave with a completed icon of St. Michael the Archangel. Cost is $1230.00 and includes room and board for the week, 36 hours of painting instruction and all art supplies. For more information, please contact Faye Drobnic at fdrobnic@diolaf.org or call 261-5554.

EFFORTLESS

The only thing that comes to a person without effort is old age.

A Stewardship Moment

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus calling Pete, Andrew, James and John to follow him. Following Jesus was a difficult journey for these first disciples. It is difficult for us today. Jesus wants to teach us his way of thinking, acting and encountering the world. But it is not easy for us to embrace his teaching. Good stewards of Jesus' teachings realize they are on a spiritual journey, and must learn from their experiences of being open and resistant to the Gospel. They realize the need to be liberated from those actions that keep them from enjoying a closer friendship with Jesus. What is it in our lives that we need to reform? What keeps us from revealing God's glory to others?
