Our Parish website has been redesigned. It now includes parish life events, ministry guidelines and schedules, guidance concerning the sacraments, and the curriculum of our entire CCD program. Please take a look at: www.st-charles-borromeo.org. And let us know what you think.

Vocation Supper for Young Men is scheduled for Wednesday, March 8, 2017 at 6:30 PM in Immaculata Center (1408 Carmel Drive, Lafayette). If interested, please contact the director of Vocations at 261-5690 or email vocations@diolaf.org.

It is customary that the pastor, a deacon, or a religious accompany the candidate to the Vocation Supper. A sponsoring pastor/deacon/religious may bring one or two candidates. If the young person is under the age of 18 and is the only candidate sponsored by a priest, deacon, or nun, then a parent (or other family member over the age of 18) must also attend the Vocation Supper.

RESPECT LIFE

Whether it lasts for a brief moment or for a hundred years, each of our lives is a good and perfect gift. At every stage and in every circumstance, we are held in existence by God's love. May the beginning of this new Respect Life year challenge us to remember that every person is worthy of respect and every life is worth living.

“Give us the grace...When the sacredness of life before birth is attacked, to stand up and proclaim that no one ever has the authority to destroy unborn life.”

In Humble Gratitude

As I reflect on our parish effort in the Centennial Campaign: Building Our Future Together, I am grateful for the sacrifices of those who have gone before us and I am humbled by the participation from our parish families. This campaign is providing us the same opportunity as our ancestors to ensure a bright future for our faith community. Over the past several weeks, we invited St. Charles Borromeo and Christ the King parishioners to join thousands of Catholics across the Diocese of Lafayette to be a part of this important and historic effort. I am grateful for your vision and your commitment to our parish. There is still an opportunity to join this important initiative. If you have not made a pledge yet, and would still like to, please pick up a Commitment Card from the back of church or stop by the parish office to complete one. Thank you for your continued support and prayers.

Yours in Christ,

Rev. Derrick Weingartner, SJ

Pastor, St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church and Christ the King Chapel

THE CHOSEN REMNANT

Zephaniah is one of the least-known of the Old Testament prophets. He speaks in today's first reading of impending judgment. But the Lord will leave a "remnant" in Israel. This image of a remnant, or remainder, was to become vital to both Judaism and Christianity.

Paul's letter to Corinth makes obvious his deep concern for the Christians there. They are too self-confident, he says, too sure of themselves. He admonishes them to remember that Christ has given them all they have.

Today's Gospel comprises the opening of Jesus' "Great Sermon." As God gave Moses the law on Sinai, so now Jesus gathers his disciples on a hillside to teach them the new law. Each of these Beatitudes contrasts the humiliation of the present with the glory of the future: poverty vs. the riches of God's kingdom, hunger for holiness vs. fulfillment in the Spirit, persecution vs. the reign of God. Jesus is here

"It is a poverty that a "child must die", so that you may live as you wish."

Mother Teresa

ICON WORKSHOP/RETREAT

The Diocese of Lafayette Office of Worship is sponsoring a week-long residential icon painting workshop at the Jesuit Spirituality Center in Grand Coteau, LA., from January 30th-February 5th. The instructor is Dmitri Andreyev of the Prosoption School of Iconology. Participants will leave with a completed icon of St. Michael the Archangel. Cost is $1230.00 and includes room and board for the week, 36 hours of painting instruction and all art supplies. For more information, please contact Faye Drobnic at fdrobnic@diolaf.org or call 261-5554.

THE CHRISTIAN IDEAL

The Christian ideal has not been tried and found wanting. It has been found difficult and left untried.

A Stewardship Moment

In today's Gospel, Jesus begins his Sermon on the Mount with a series of blessings, the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes are a summary of the fundamental attitude of a Christian steward. Make it a point to reflect on the Gospel reading during the week. Identify the blessing you relate to the most. Which one is the most challenging for you?
