Anointing of the Sick: Parishioners are reminded that Opelousas hospitals do not have a Catholic chaplain. The area priests are called upon to visit the parishioners at the hospital. Sometimes the priests cannot respond immediately to emergency requests for the Anointing of the Sick because their schedules are full. If you are scheduled to have surgery and would like to receive the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, please contact Fr. Derrick before going to the hospital. Thank You.

Quo VADIS Days, “Learn about the priesthood and how to discern your vocation.” Young men, ages 15-25 are invited to Community of Jesus Crucified in St. Martinville, La. June 27-29, 2017. There is no charge. To register, call 261-5690 or www.lafayettevocaitions.org

Prairie Rhonde Cursillo Center

Would you like to experience a short course on Christianity? Consider making a Cursillo. The Cursillo weekend is designed to facilitate a personal encounter with Christ in order to experience a full and progressive renewal of baptismal commitments. For more information, contact the Center at 543-7425.

On June 25th, we will have a Peter’s Pence Collection, which provides Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.usccb.org/peters-pence.

Baby Bottle Campaign Update: During this year’s baby bottle campaign for the pregnancy resource center and St. Marguerite d’Youville Home, our parish donated a total of $1,926.73. This wonderful gift enables the Diocese to help young women with unplanned pregnancies who call the center seeking assistance. With information and resources available, 90% of these women will choose LIFE.

A Special THANKS to Vicky Fruge for coordinating this campaign!

THE INEXPRESSIBLE MYSTERY

The God of the universe is mysterious. Science has not been able to solve the mystery of how the universe came into being or explain exactly what continues to give it creative energy and masterful design. No religion asserts that it has found words to name fully the ineffable mystery of God, for no matter what name we use, God always transcends our limited ability to understand. God is a mystery to be believed, not known. And yet, we Christians believe that our name for God best expresses that inexpressible mystery: God is the Most Holy Trinity of three persons united in a communion of love, pouring forth that creative, saving, sanctifying love into the world. Today's scriptures celebrate the mystery of the Trinity and give us clues for living that mystery in our lives.

THE GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

A Stewardship Moment

In today's second reading Saint Paul's final appeal is a call for unity. Good stewards who share Christ's life in the Eucharist belong to each other, just as God in the three persons of Father, Son and Holy Spirit enjoy unity. We are an intimate part of God's divine bond, God's "family." Saint Paul maintains that we ought to act that way. In the Church there is a bond of family, yet plenty room for variety. Christian stewards use their uniquely varied gifts to live in Trinitarian faith, in unity, promoting Christ's peace and justice. How do we promote unity in our parish?
